Leader In Operations

I am seeking opportunities within operations or web development for a modern and innovative company, where my diverse skill set can be utilized and help the organisation's goals be reached & evolved.

DISC PROFILE:

A clear thinker. Has an inner need to be objective and analytical. Responds to logic rather than emotion. Good at managing challenging technical assignments. Strives to become 'expert' in selected areas.

MBTI PERSONALITY TYPE:

- ENTJ / INTJ
- I am directly on the border between E & I; my assessments have returned both on different occasions
